

Churches of Aruba

Aruba's Fine Churches are Beautiful Landmarks' the Heart of Community Activities, and Spiritual Leaders for People of Many Faiths and Nations

Vital to Aruba are its many churches. As works of beauty, the buildings are a constant inspiration to devoutness. For they were built by and for a deeply religious people. As a result, the churches form the heart of community life.

The churches have a part in training and educating the island's youth. Most important, they serve the spiritual needs of people of all faiths and nationalities.

Di gran importancia pa Aruba ta su misanan y kerkinan. Obran bunita, e edificionan ta sirbi como inspiracion constante pa debocion, pasobra nan ta trahá pa un pueblo profundamente religioso.

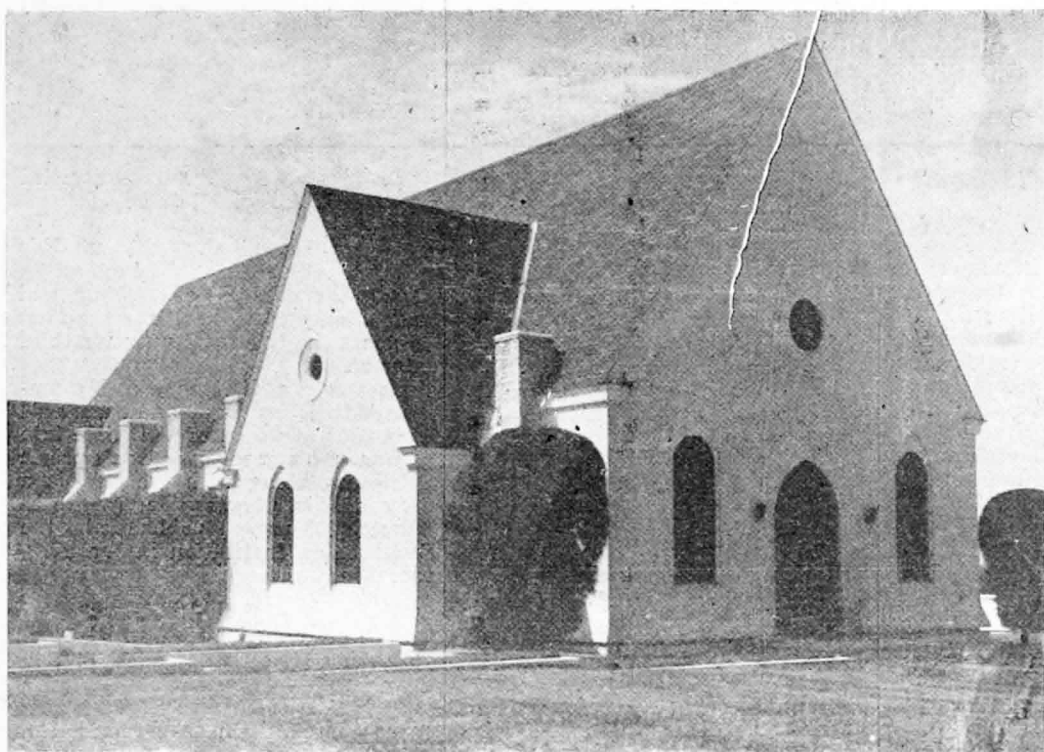

Misanan y kerkinan tin un papel importante den sinjanza y educacion di hubentud Arubiano. Pero di mas importancia ta cu nan ta yena necesidadnan spiritual di hendenan di hopi diferente religion- y nacionalidatnan.

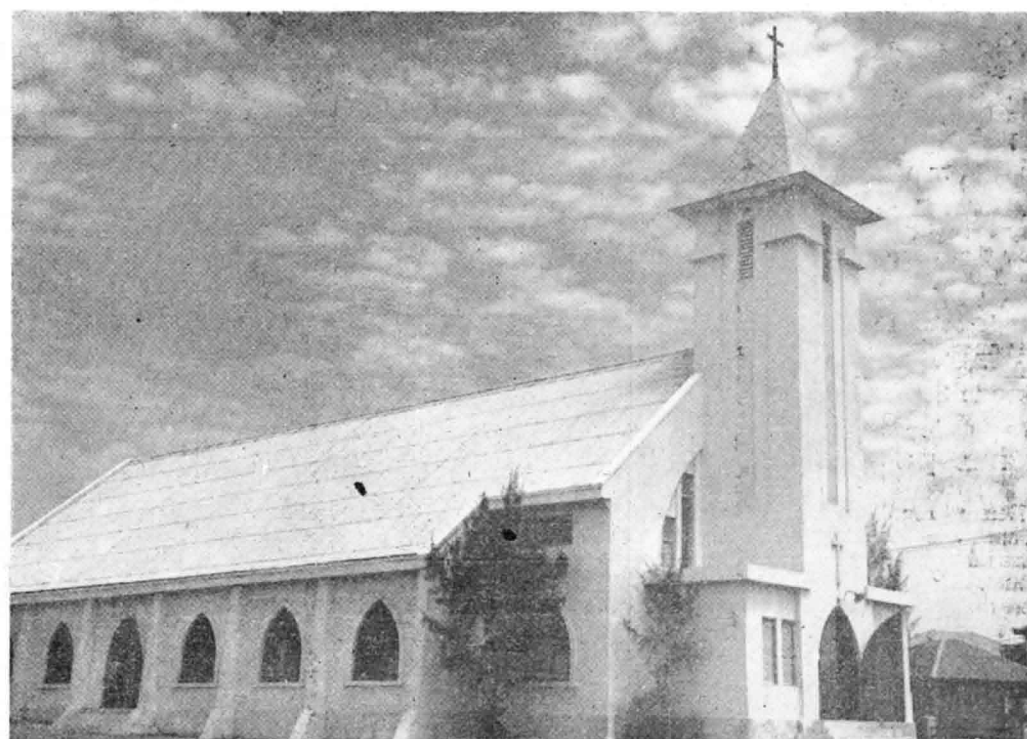

St. Francis Church, Oranjestad. Roman Catholic; Father J. Burgemeester.

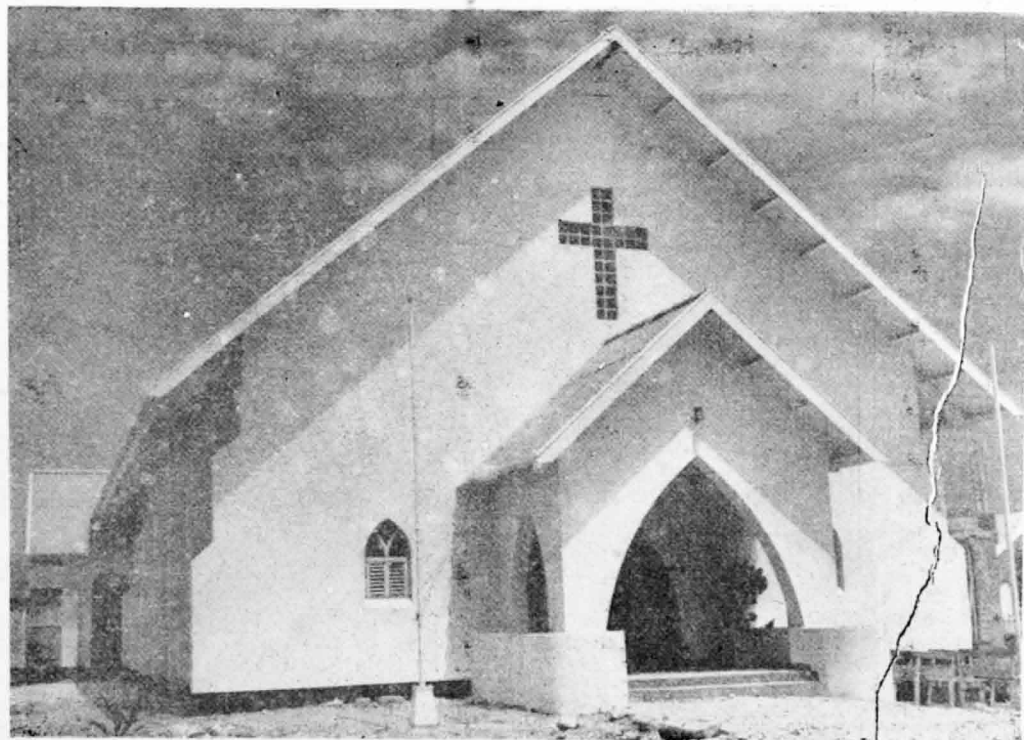

Protestant Church, Oranjestad. Dutch Reformed; Rev. T. Hoogerwaard

Lago Community Church, Lago Colony. Non-Denominational; Rev. D. R. Evans

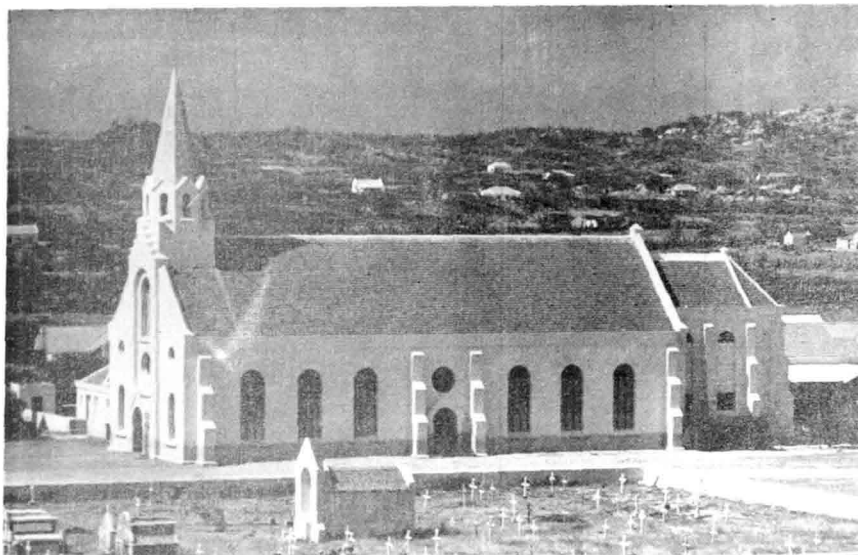

St. Theresa's Church, San Nicolas. Roman Catholic; Father J. M. Holterman

Anglican Church, San Nicolas. Rev. D. G. Jakeman.

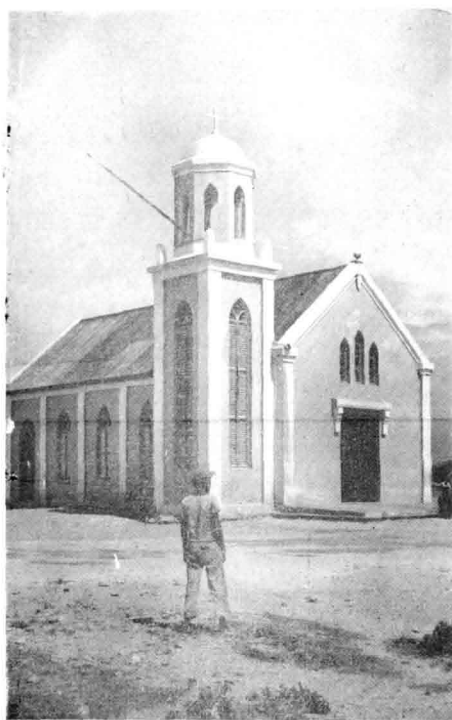

Methodist Church, San Nicolas. Rev. R. A. Kirtley.

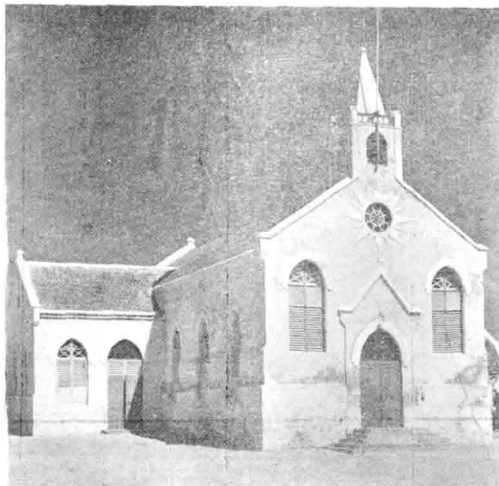

Saint Ann's Church, Noord. Roman Catholic; Father J. L. M. van Weerelt

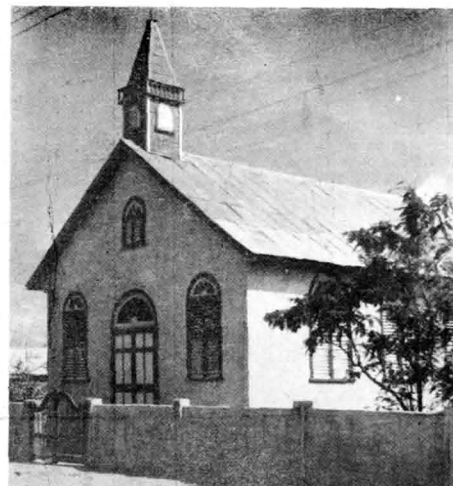

Seventh Day Adventist Church, Oranjestad. Rev. R. L. Klingbell.

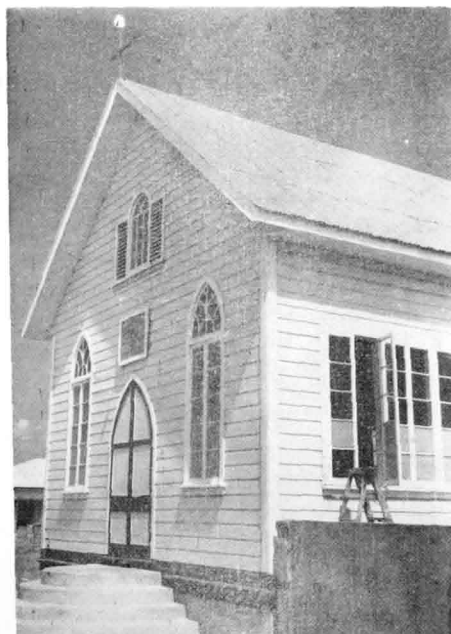

Protestant Church, Piedra Plat. Dutch Reformed; Rev. T. Hoogerwaard.

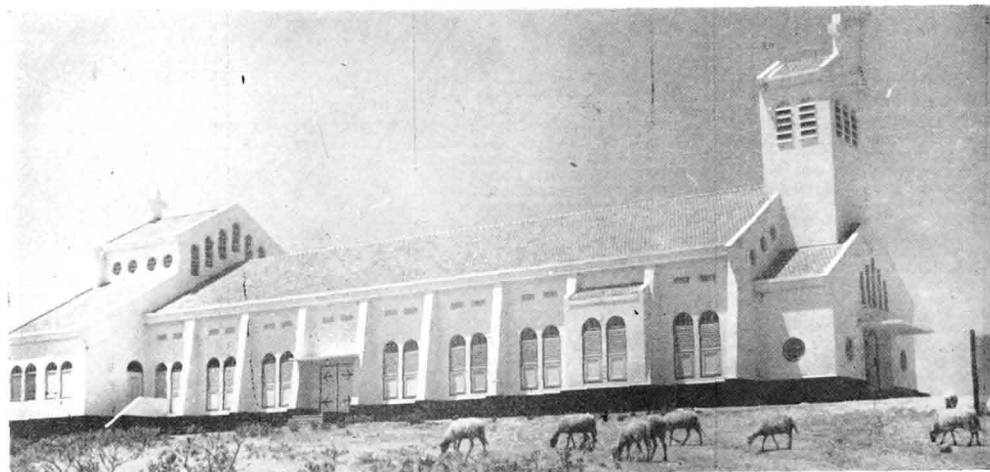

Church of the Sacred Heart, Sabaneta. Roman Catholic; Father J. Berlage.

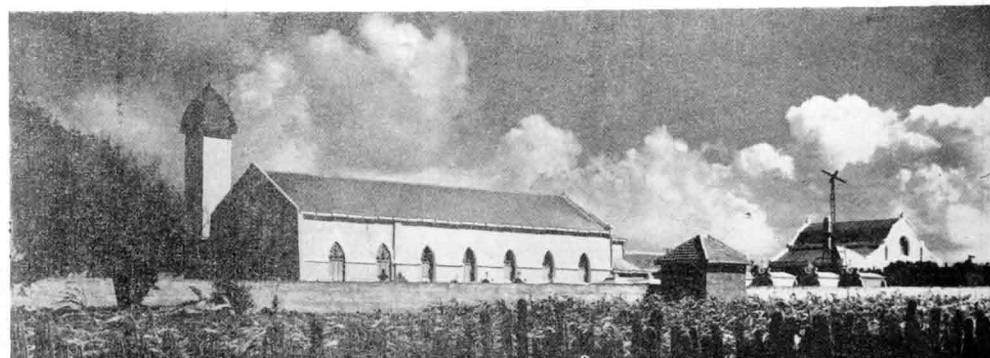

Seventh Day Adventist Church, San Nicolas. Rev. R. L. Klingbell.

Pentecostal Church, San Nicolas. Rev. Edgar Conner.

Santa Filomena Church, Paradera. Roman Catholic; Father C. Spekle.

Church of the Immaculate Conception, Santa Cruz. Roman Catholic; Father P. Grove.